or•mo•lu

noun

gold cast ornaments applied to antiques, furniture, & ceramics widely used in Europe in the 18th Century

Originally from the Midwest, I now call Southern California my home.
Decorative arts, Textured Paper, and Modern Design have always fascinated me.

I started Ormolu Press so I could combine those loves and merge them into greeting cards.
Hence the artful images paired with foiled borders and dimensional embossing.

Each design is printed on premium cardstock using antique and modern printing techniques then hand-finished in our studio to create beautiful keepsakes that you can see and feel in every piece.

We work sustainably and are committed to minimizing our footprint on the environment by using post-consumer Tree-Free materials whenever possible.
We partner with companies that engage in these sustainable and responsible practices

Your customers looking for “Modern Style” and a bit of Finesse will Love our cards!
